

Business Technology

---

Admission into this program requires proof of high school graduation (or GED) and qualifying scores on SAT, ACT or the TTC placement test.

Recommended Sequence of Courses

First Semester – Fall

LOG 125	Transportation Logistics	3
MMT 135	Shipping Operations	3
TRL 101	Introduction to Transportation	3
		Total 9

Second Semester – Spring

LOG 235	Traffic Management	3
MMT 110	Inventory Management	3
TRL 105	Warehousing	3
		Total 9

Third Semester – Summer

TRL 106	Export/Import	3
TRL 107	Commercial Motor Carrier	3
		Total 6

UNIX Systems Operations

Certificate in Applied Science

Credit Requirements: 18 Semester Credit Hours

This program prepares you for computer network operations specialist jobs. It is ideal if you are employed in a business that uses the UNIX operating system in a LAN or WAN environment.

Admission into this program requires proof of high school graduation (or GED) and qualifying scores on SAT, ACT or the TTC placement test.

Recommended Sequence of Courses

First Semester

CPT 102	Basic Computer Concepts	3
IST 220	Data Communications	3
		Total 6

Second Semester

IST 166	Network Fundamentals	3
IST 190	Linux Essentials	3
		Total 6

Third Semester

IST 191	Linux System Administration	3
IST 192	Linux Network Applications	3
		Total 6