2019-2020 TTC Catalog

CPT 242 Database

Lec: 3.0 Lab: 0 Credit: 3.0

This course introduces database models and the fundamentals of database design. Topics include database structure, database processing and application programs that access a database. Upon completion of this course the student will be able to 1) demonstrate the fundamental skills needed to successfully design and implement a database, 2)demonstrate a thorough understanding of database concepts and technologies, and 3) be able to use and understand SQL commands.

Prerequisite

CPT 114

or

CPT 167

Course Offered

Fall
Spring
Summer

Grade Type

Letter Grade

Division

Business Technology