

2019-2020 TTC Catalog

ECO 210 Macroeconomics

Lec: 3.0 Lab: 0 Credit: 3.0

This course covers the study of fundamental principles and policies of a modern economy including markets and prices, national income accounting, cycles, employment theory and fiscal policy, banking and monetary controls, and the government's role in economic decisions and growth.

Prerequisite

MAT 155

and

MAT 101

or appropriate placement

Course Offered

Fall

Spring

Summer

Grade Type

Letter Grade

Division

Business Technology