

2024-2025 TTC Catalog

HIS 130 African-American History to 1877

Lec: 3.0 Lab: 0 Credit: 3.0

This survey course describes the efforts of African-Americans to define themselves through their social, economic and political contributions to American history. The history, impact and significance of the institution of slavery are included. The chronological scope of the course ranges from the African origins of African-Americans to the frustrations associated with the failure of Reconstruction.

Prerequisite

RWR 100

with a minimum grade of C or appropriate placement

Course Offered

Fall

Grade Type

Letter Grade

Division

Humanities and Social Sciences