2018-2019 TTC Catalog - Business Technology

TTC's Business Technology programs are designed to prepare students for entry-level positions in business, industry and government. Responding to the needs of the growing business community, the Business Technology associate degree and certificate programs combine academic theory with hands-on training using state-of-the-art equipment. TTC's associate degree programs in Accounting, Administrative Office Technology, Business Administration, Computer Technology and Management are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs.

Associate Degree

Accounting

Administrative Office Technology

Business Administration - Customer Service

Business Administration - International Business

Business Administration - Marketing

Business Administration - Small Business - Entrepreneurship

Computer Technology - Computer Programming

Computer Technology - Information Systems Specialist

Management - Business Information Systems

Management - Fire Service

Management - Human Resources

Management - Leadership Development

Management - Supply Chain Management

Management - Transportation and Logistics

Network Systems Management

Certificate

Bookkeeping

Business Information Systems

Cisco Certified Network Associate

CompTIA Systems Specialist

Cybersecurity

Digital Marketing Communications

Enterprise Network Administrator

International Business

Internet Programming

Leadership Development

Linux Systems Administration

Medical Office Specialist

Microcomputer Business Applications

Microcomputer Expert User

Microcomputer Programming

Microsoft Network Solutions Associate

Microsoft Network Solutions Expert

Network Security

Professional Accountancy

Small Business - Entrepreneurship

Tax Preparer

Transportation and Logistics

Virtualization and Cloud Computing